3. St. Timothy's is an interdenominational Christian school, with families and teachers from a wide variety of Protestant, Catholic, and Orthodox backgrounds. What might you find challenging about working in this environment?

4. What do you believe to be the purpose of education?

5. What are some qualities of an effective teacher?

6. What experiences or reading have shaped your thinking about education?
7. Please tell us about your reading life. What are you reading currently, and what type of books do you tend to read?
8. Tell us about a work of visual art, music, or literature that has been important to you.

9. What habits, hobbies, or practices help you to flourish and to appreciate God's creation? Do you foresee ways you might be able to share some of the things you love with young students?

10. Tell us about any talents or areas of interest that you think might enhance your teaching or our school community.

11. What are some books that you are excited about introducing to a Kindergarten class? What do you value in these books?

All applicants must have filed a police check and be cleared in order to be considered for employment.
